

- KEY
- Restrooms
 - Information
 - Elevator (L/LL-ML)
 - Elevator (ML-UL)
 - Stairs
 - Emergency Exit
 - Ramp

Discover Explore Learn!

Cetacean's

Check out the Cetacean Station to learn all about whales, dolphins, and porpoises.

What is an adaptation?

What adaptations do whales have to help them survive?

Whale Heart

Compare the human heart to the life-sized blue whale heart!

How old do you think a whale can live to be?

What other organs do you think humans and whales have in common??

NARW Model

Baleen whales have strong fingernail-like materials that hang from their mouth.

How many plates of baleen are in a North Atlantic Whale's mouth?

Why do you think whales have such big heads?

Specimen Cabinet

Discover amazing artifacts in our specimen cabinet!

Find 3 items you think are the most interesting.

What is an artifact?

Why do you think the Museum grouped these artifacts together?

Rotating Puzzle

Use the puzzles to explore whales' internal & external anatomy.

What whale has the longest fins?

Watch this video to learn how many stomachs a whale has!

Conservation

Spot the conservation posters to learn about whales today!

How many North Atlantic Whales are in our ocean today?

What are whales biggest threats today?

Big Head, Blubber, Blowhole, Streamlined body

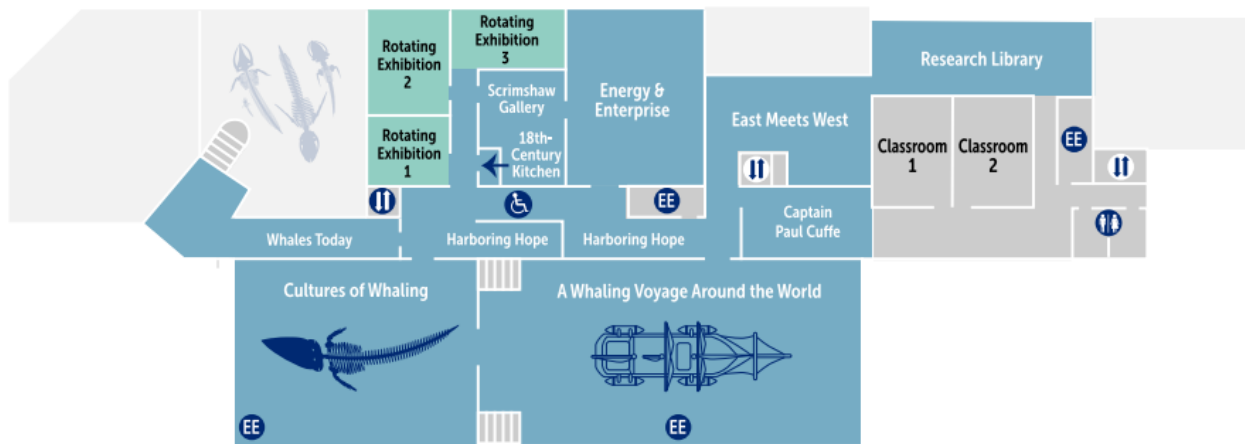

80, 100, 150, 200 years.

500 plates

A cultural/historical object used to learn.

Humpback whale.

less than 400.

Whales Today Self-Guided Tour

Learn all about whales and discover what we can do to help protect them in our ocean today!

Limpett

Find Limpett.

What is going on with limpett?

What solutions can you think of to protect whales from their biggest threats today?

Entanglement

Skeletons

Look out at the whale skeletons!

How many skeletons can you find?

What bones do whales have that are similar to yours?

Ribs, vertebrae, flippers, hip bones

4

Whale Sounds

Listen to whales at the Research Center.

How did scientists first learn about whales?

Why do you think there is a drone hanging in the Museum?

underwater recordings

Sperm Whale

Spot the Sperm Whale skeleton.

What makes the sperm whale different from the other skeletons?

How do toothed whales find their food?

Teeth, Sperm whale
Echolocation

